Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community Mission Statement

We, the people of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community, believe we are called by God to live our faith and to bring others to Christ by our words and actions.

January 16, 2011

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Musings from the Pastoral Center

 by Deacon Bill

In last week's readings from Acts, Peter says, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality...as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all (Acts 10:34-36). This week is the Week of Prayer for Christian unity. The joint message for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity as cited from the Graymoor Ecumenical and Interreligious Institute (www.geii.org) follows:

Two thousand years ago, the first Christians gathered in Jerusalem experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, and were joined together in unity as the body of Christ. In that event, Christians of every time and place see their origin as a community of the faithful, called together to proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. Although that earliest Jerusalem Church experienced difficulties, both externally and internally, its members persevered in faithfulness and fellowship, in breaking bread and prayers.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity invites the whole Christian community throughout the world to pray in communion with the prayer of Jesus "that they all may be one" (John 17:21). The Christians of Jerusalem call upon their brothers and sisters to make this week of prayer an occasion of renewed commitment to work for genuine ecumenism grounded in the experience of the early Church.

May we pray and work together for the unity of all, joining our prayer to that of the Lord Jesus Christ, "that all may be one" (John 17:21).

Whole Community Catechesis

January 16 – January 22, 2011, Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel: John 1: 29-34

Theme: Now I have seen for myself.

Question for Adults: In the gospel today, John tells us who Jesus is for him. If someone were to ask you, how would you answer this question: Who Jesus is for you?

Question for Youth: How are you able to see through all the busyness, the distractions, and the din of today's world to really see Christ as he makes himself present today? Where do you see him or experience his presence?

Question for Children: If someone were to ask you, "who is Jesus?" how would you answer?

Stewardship

Today's responsorial Psalm is the theme song of the good stewards: "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." May I, too, stand ready to offer myself and my gifts in the service of God.

Reminder: OLL Quilters

The OLL Quilters will begin meeting again on Thursday, January 20th at 9:00 am. If you would like to learn about or become involved with the quilting group, please come. They group meets in the Quilting Room, located downstairs in the Pastoral Center.

Bible Study

Deacon Bill is preparing for another Bible Study, which would begin in early February, and meet on Tuesdays from 6 – 7:30 pm. The next session will be focused on the Narrative of Jesus (4 weeks) and will be followed by a study of The Passion and Resurrection Narratives of Jesus (7 weeks), ending near Easter. Please contact Deacon Bill at 715-682-8417 or bmjholz@mac.com if you are interested in joining this session, as he will be ordering the books soon!

Rides To Church

We have a few people who would like a ride to church on weekends. Please call Kim at Court Manor at 715-682-8172 ext. 132 for further information or to volunteer. Thank you.

Last Chance For Ministry Schedule Changes

If you would like to make a change to your Ministry schedule (altar servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers or greeters) please call the Parish Office this week.

Are you being called to Minister in one way or another at our weekend Masses? Please feel free to call the Parish Office to sign up. You would be added to the new schedules coming out for the next several months beginning in March.

Baptism Parent Preparation Class Change

Please note that the Baptism class schedule has changed. The class will now be on the second Thursday of each month. The time and place will remain the same (6:30 pm at the Pastoral Center). The next class will be on Thursday, February 10, 2011.

Box Tops For Education

Did you know that each Box Top For Education is worth 10 cents in cash to OLL School? For this submission date, please turn in any Box Tops you may have by no later than February 15th. Thank you for collecting these valuable items for us. Please drop them off in the North Entrance, the collections basket, or send to school with your children.

SCRIP News

Great news! Target has joined the SCRIP program. Cards are available in $25 or $100 amounts with a 2% rebate. We have $25 Target cards in stock and will attempt to keep them available on an on-going basis.

Below is a projection of what OLL could potentially earn if just 100 families used SCRIP for their monthly purchases:

Consider using SCRIP – you'll be helping OLL without spending any additional money from your monthly budget.
